FIFTEEN ENLIST AT CAMP ORDWAY

Recruiting Improves After Temporary Lull Due to Stay Orders.

Camp Ordway was in a happier mood yesterday when it became known that fifteen recruits for the District Militia had been obtained. Officers and men expected that the enlistments would be few on account of the orders holding the troops at Camp Ordway until the settlement of the strike.

Eight men joined the ranks of the Third Infantry, and one man enlisted in Troop A. Six men became members of the First Separate Battalion. The colored infantry now needs only about sixty-five men to fill its to war strength.

A vaudeville show by members of the Third Infantry to stimulate recruiting is being arranged for tomorrow evening at a moving picture park near the recruiting tent at Fifteenth and H streets northeast. Serat, Milo Atkinson and Corporal James Quade, of Company D, will give an exhibition of expert sharpshooting, and there will be songs and dances by other enlisted men. Capt. G. L. Tait, of Company D, is arranging the program.

The men who enlisted yesterday were: Third Infantry—Lee S. Brown, James Burdette, Pete S. Greco, Jesse L. Grimes, Dennis Palmer, Alexander Pappas, Dewey F. Rice, Daniel E. Southard. Troop A—Joseph P. Maloney. First Separate Battalion—Joseph H. Ford, Luvercy C. French, James H. Lewis, Leon Lindsey, Edwin B. Minor, Herbert J. Scott.

RECALL OF ATTACHE FOLLOWS CRITICISM

The Navy Department yesterday afternoon announced that Commander Powers Symington, naval attaché of the American Embassy in London, had been recalled and would be succeeded by Capt. W. D. MacDougall. No reason was given. Capt. MacDougall is stationed at the Naval Observatory here.

Several months ago Commander Symington while on leave in this country, made a report to the Navy Department on his observations of British naval affairs. Some criticism resulted.

COMPLAINS OF CAMP CONDITIONS

St. Louis Engineer Declares Troops on Border Suffer Mistreatment.

F. C. Mueller, an electrical engineer of St. Louis, Mo., is on his way to Washington from New York to open the eyes of some of the lobby strategists on actual conditions as they are on the border. He says that if the boys watching the Mexican frontier are refused "a kick" he will see to it that his observations and studies of conditions along the border will not go by unnoticed.

Young Mr. Mueller served as a civilian employee with the automobile truck train of Company E of the Engineering Corps at Columbus, N. Mex., where he participated in the building of the railway line from the border to Parral, Mexico, which was intended to constitute General Pershing's channel for supplies for the Villa search and punitive expedition.

Mueller has enlisted the service of Senator William Joel Stone, formerly Governor of Missouri, and now chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee of the United States Senate, to aid him in exposing what he calls "the rotten inefficiency and wrongdoings" which, he alleges, mark the military operations along the border and especially at Columbus, where he was a patient in the military hospital for ten days.

Hospital Wards Flooded.

Mueller says there are no floors in the tent wards of the hospital and that he has seen four inches of flood water from the rains running under the beds of patients. He has a list of the food served the patients, as well as the enlisted men and employees, and he is prepared to swear that some of the government has been packed in this for more than twenty years. Mueller says he saw sixty men of the Second Massachusetts Infantry all stricken down the same day with ptomaine poisoning from eating decomposed rations of canned salmon.

Sanitary Conditions Poor.

He said that in the mortuary tent at Columbus, adjoining the hospital tents, the dead body of a negro trooper was kept unburied for over twenty days, a menace and an offense to the whole encampment. He says that the sick men, those too ill for solid food, are given a quart of black coffee for breakfast, reheated soup for lunch and supper, and that it is impossible to gain medical attention at any time of the day or night except at the hours, morning and night, when the staff surgeon makes his regular rounds.
